Measuring length

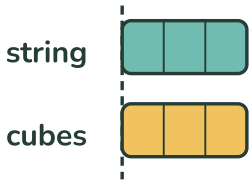

Name	Date

Part 1 Measure with cubes

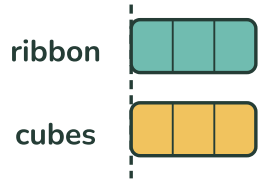

1 How many cubes long is the pencil?

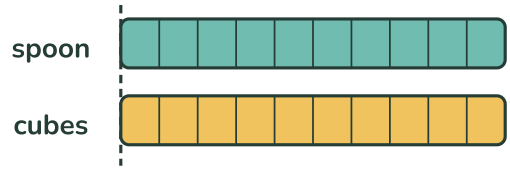

2 How many cubes long is the string?

3 How many cubes long is the ribbon?

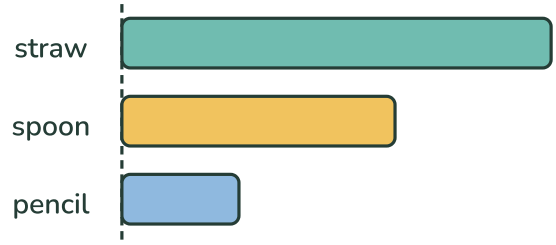

4 How many cubes long is the spoon?

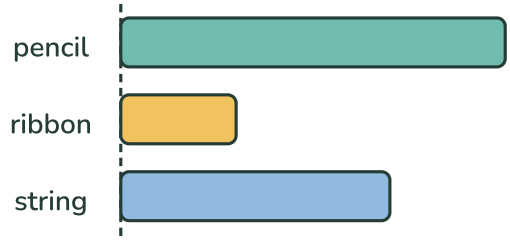

Part 2 Longest or shortest? Which is the shortest?

5

○ spoon ○ pencil ○ straw

6

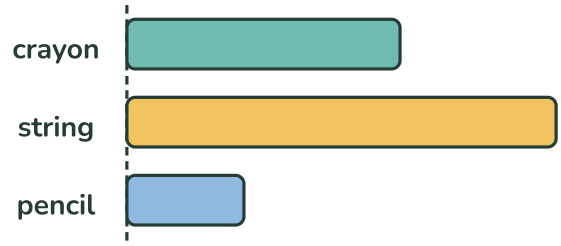

○ ribbon ○ pencil ○ string

Measuring length

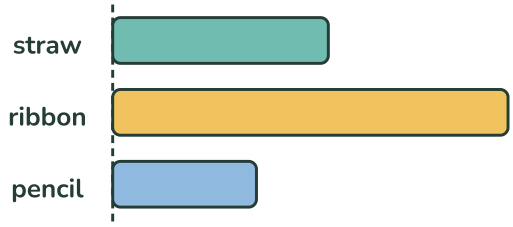

Part 3 Order by length

Write them in order from shortest to longest.

7

8

Part 4 Compare with a string

9 Mia cannot move the door or the window. A string is as long as the door. The string is shorter than the window. Which is longer?

○ The window ○ The door

10 Ivy cannot move the rug or the bed. A string is as long as the rug. The string is shorter than the bed. Which is longer?

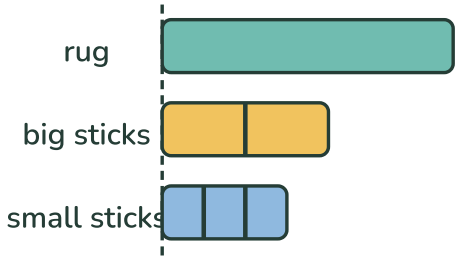

○ The bed ○ The rug

Measuring length

Part 5 Same-size units

11 Ana measures a rug with 2 big sticks and 3 small sticks. Ana says the rug is 5 sticks long. Why is Ana wrong?

○ The rug is too long to measure. ○ There are too many sticks.

○ The sticks are not all the same size.

12 Leo measures a rug with 3 big sticks and 3 small sticks. Leo says the rug is 6 sticks long. Why is Leo wrong?

○ The rug is too long to measure. ○ There are too many sticks.

○ The sticks are not all the same size.

Measuring length

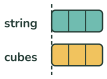

Part 1 Measure with cubes

1 How many cubes long is the pencil?

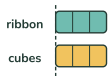

Answer: 5

2 How many cubes long is the string?

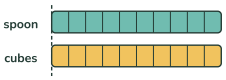

Answer: 3

3 How many cubes long is the ribbon?

Answer: 3

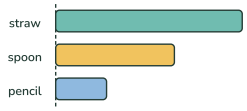

4 How many cubes long is the spoon?

Answer: 10

Part 2 Longest or shortest?

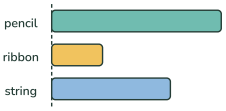

5 Which is the shortest?

O spoon O pencil O straw

Answer: pencil

6 Which is the shortest?

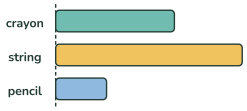

O ribbon O pencil O string

Answer: ribbon

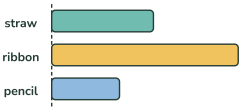

Part 3 Order by length

7 Write them in order from shortest to longest.

Answer: pencil, crayon, string

8 Write them in order from shortest to longest.

Answer: pencil, straw, ribbon

Part 4 Compare with a string

9 Mia cannot move the door or the window. A string is as long as the door. The string is shorter than the window. Which is longer?

O The window O The door

Answer: The window

10 Ivy cannot move the rug or the bed. A string is as long as the rug. The string is shorter than the bed. Which is longer?

O The bed O The rug

Answer: The bed

Part 5 Same-size units

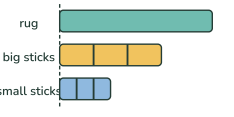

11 Ana measures a rug with 2 big sticks and 3 small sticks. Ana says the rug is 5 sticks long. Why is Ana wrong?

O The rug is too long to measure. O There are too many sticks.
O The sticks are not all the same size.

Answer: The sticks are not all the same size.

12 Leo measures a rug with 3 big sticks and 3 small sticks. Leo says the rug is 6 sticks long. Why is Leo wrong?

O The rug is too long to measure. O There are too many sticks.
O The sticks are not all the same size.

Answer: The sticks are not all the same size.